The Rínok Rača location is like a quiet urban story in the middle of a wine-growing tradition - a place where the past gently blends with the current lifestyle. It is located in the heart of Rača, one of the most authentic and greenest parts of Bratislava, where the mornings are still fragrant with grapes and the evenings are peaceful, although the city never sleeps. The apartment is located a 3-minute walk from the tram stop and the Rínok Rača shopping promenade where there is a Tesco, DM, Slovenska Sporiteľňa, Kern restaurant, Papiernictvo Ševt and a beauty salon. It is a maximum of 20 minutes to the city center. For families with children, there is a kindergarten right on the premises, and within walking distance there is a renovated elementary school - the heart of community life, where children come with joy. However, Rínok Rača also offers space for individuals who desire harmonious living with proximity to nature, culture, and comfort at the same time.
